

Blessed is the man that walketh not—in the counsel of the ungodly, — nor standeth in the way of sinners, — nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful.— But his delight is in the law of the LORD; — and in his law doth he meditate day and night.
(Psalm 1:1-2)

Suggested reading: “Elijah” by Arthur Pink. One of the best books on Elijah. Rich in the background of the times.

My son, keep my words, and lay up my commandments with thee. — Keep my commandments, and live; — and my law as the apple of thine eye. — Bind them upon thy fingers, — write them upon the table of thine heart. (Proverbs 7:1-3)

I delight to do thy will, O my God: yea, thy law is within my heart. (Psalm 40:8)

Thy words were found, and I did eat them; —and thy word was unto me the joy and rejoicing of mine heart: — for I am called by thy name, — O LORD God of hosts.
(Jeremiah 15:16)

And Samuel grew, and the LORD was with him, and did let none of his words fall to the ground.
And all Israel from Dan even to Beersheba knew that Samuel was established to be a prophet of the LORD. (1Samuel 3:19-20)

But he answered and said, — It is written,—Man shall not live by bread alone, — but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God. (Matthew 4:4)

And he humbled thee, and suffered thee to hunger, and fed thee with manna, which thou knewest not, neither did thy fathers know; that he might make thee know that man doth not live by bread only, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of the LORD doth man live.
(Deuteronomy 8:3) (Mat. 4:4 is taken from this verse)

Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path. (Psalm 119:105)

Let the words of my mouth, and the meditation of my heart, be acceptable in thy sight, O LORD, my strength, and my redeemer. (Psalm 19:14)

So shall my word be that goeth forth out of my mouth: — it shall not return unto me void, — but it shall accomplish that which I please, — and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it.
(Isaiah 55:11)

The words of the LORD are pure words: - as silver tried in a furnace of earth, - purified seven times. Thou shalt keep them, O LORD, - thou shalt preserve them from this generation for ever. (Psalm 12:6-7)

Is not my word like as a fire? —saith the LORD; — and like a hammer that breaketh the rock in pieces?
(Jeremiah 23:29)

My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge: — because thou hast rejected knowledge, — I will also reject thee, that thou shalt be no priest to me: — seeing thou hast forgotten the law of thy God, — I will also forget thy children. (Hosea 4:6)

And ye have not his word abiding in you: for whom he hath sent, him ye believe not.
Search the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me.
(John 5:38-39)

And now, brethren, I commend you to God, and to the word of his grace, - which is able to build you up, - and to give you an inheritance among all them which are sanctified.
(Acts 20:32)
