For by grace are ye saved through faith; - and that not of yourselves: - it is the gift of God: Not of works, - lest any man should boast. (Ephesians 2:8-9)

Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth my word, - and believeth on him that sent me, - hath everlasting life, - and shall not come into condemnation; - but is passed from death unto life. (John 5:24)

All that the Father giveth me shall come to me; - and him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out. (John 6:37)

No man can come to me, - except the Father which hath sent me draw him: - and I will raise him up at the last day. (John 6:44)

And when he is come, - he will reprove the world of sin, - and of righteousness - and of judgment: (John 16:8)

Who his own self - bare our sins in his own body on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness: by whose stripes ye were healed. (1Peter 2:24)

The subject is sin and its penalty of death being inflicted upon the body of Christ on our behalf. We are now healed of the death penalty and therefore are free to live in the direction of righteousness. We have been saved completely from the penalty of sin—we are being saved more or less from the power of sin today—and we shall in the future be saved completely from the presence of sin. Salvation in its entirety is a process and not merely an event.

Behold, I stand at the door, and knock: if any man hear my voice, and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me. (Revelation 3:20)

This is the last verse in The Gospel section. Your next subject will be ONE ANOTHER. Remember to write down bits and pieces of verses you already know onto white cards (3x5 cards cut in half) and work on them.
